

U3A Whyalla Inc. Program for Term 4, 2024

President’s message

Welcome to the Whyalla U3A term four program. I hope you find many activities to enjoy this term. Thank you to the leaders of the programs and classes so far as you are all greatly appreciated. Come in to Room 72 at the Uni on 11th October and drop of your Term 4 enrolment form and join us for a cuppa.

Board games have been popular with 4 new members to U3A so feel free to join in.

Our first guest speaker for term 4, 17th October at 10.30am will be Paul Mazourek, from the Whyalla City Council who will do a presentation of the history of Aboriginal people in the Whyalla region, from the prehistoric times until today. This lecture explains the natural environment, people, hunting, fishing, and gathering and dreaming. Lecture, Power Point.

The second speaker is Snr. Constable Keren Bourke from SAPOL’s Crime Prevention Section in Whyalla who will be speaking to us about Home Security.
